Dear:

This letter is in response to your inquiry of the Philadelphia station previously awaiting a grant by the FCC.

The application for the Philadelphia station was filed by our affiliate, National Minority Television, Inc. (NMTV). Paul Crouch is the President, Phil Aguilar, of Set Free Ministries, and myself are directors of the NMTV board. The FCC has a clear understanding of the structure of the board of directors of NMTV. In fact, over the past four years, NMTV approved licenses for Odessa, Texas and Portland, Oregon. In 1986 was for ~~The FCC made the ruling that if a group had minority control, two more stations could be owned. Phil Aguilar and I are minorities. The FCC is now deciding if they wish to change their original rules.~~

Dear:

This letter is in response to your inquiry of the Philadelphia station previously awaiting a grant by the FCC.

The application for the Philadelphia station was filed by our affiliate, National Minority TV, Inc. (NMTV). Paul Crouch is the President, Phil Aguilar, of Set Free Ministries, and myself are directors of the NMTV board. Recently Dr. E. V. Hill, of the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Watts, joined NMTV as a new director. The FCC has a clear understanding of the structure of the board of directors of NMTV. In fact, over the past four years, NMTV was approved for licenses for Odessa, Texas and Portland, Oregon. In 1986 the FCC modified its rules to permit group owners, such as Trinity, to work with and assist organizations that were minority owned (i.e., a majority of its voting directors were minorities) to have interests in 14 full power television stations, instead of 12. We hope this policy continues, although it appears the FCC is reconsidering this point.

NMTV's right to purchase the Philadelphia station expired because of the processing delays at the FCC, and although NMTV attempted to get extensions the Federal Bankruptcy Court ultimately terminated NMTV's current right to buy the station. While NMTV still hopes the Bankruptcy Court will open the proceeding again to allow a purchase of the station again, currently there is no proceeding along those lines. This has forced NMTV to simply wait.

Please pray with us that the FCC will not only abide by its rules, but the Bankruptcy Court will again open up the Philadelphia station for purchase. We have not given up! We believe Trinity programming will eventually be available on a station in Philadelphia proclaiming the Good News!

Thank you for your concern and continued support as we move forward to win this battle.

Sincerely,

JANE DUFF
